DISTINCTIVE WINES OF COLCHAGUA VALLEY

Maquis vineyards are literally an island surrounded by the Tinguiririca and Chimbarongo rivers, historical waterways that once carried alluvial sediments from the Andes Mountains into present day Colchagua Valley. Today, they act as pathways for cool coastal breezes that help moderate the warm Colchagua summers, a combination which makes wine from this region appealingly fruity with excellent structure and length. Winemakers Alejandro Jofré, Ricardo Rivadeneira Hurtado and viticulturist Xavier Choné make wines that reflect the extraordinary character of this unique soil and topography.
