

PEÑALOLÉN

Founded by Ricardo Peña and wife Isabel, Peñalolén is a family-owned boutique winery committed to producing unique Chilean wines full of personality and verve. Wine production is headed by winemaker Jean-Pascal Lacaze, who is well respected for his deft hand and memorable wines. All grapes are grown and harvested manually with meticulous care to guarantee the integrity of the fruit.

2013 Estate Cabernet Sauvignon- Maipo Valley

Low yields and harvesting by hand indicate the care given to this superior fruit of the Alto Maipo from high upon the gravelly slopes of the Maipo Valley. Classic standards extend to the wine-making process, with meticulous grape selection and aging in French oak barrels for 12 months. The wine is full of red fruits and spring accents with well polished and integrated tannins.

2013 Cabernet Sauvignon:

“Brilliant ruby-red. Fresh, spice-accented aromas of redcurrant, cherry and rose. Silky and expansive on the palate, offering juicy red fruit flavors and a touch of allspice. Soft tannins add gentle grip to the supple, fruit-driven finish.”
