

i-winereview.com

The International Wine Review

February 2013

Independent, Insightful, In-depth.

Glowing Reviews and Fantastic Scores for Albamar and William Cole Vineyards from International Wine Review

91 points!- William Cole 2011 "Bill" Sauvignon Blanc, "New world wine at its best: lychee, guava and citrus aromas and flavor... fermented and aged in French oak for 4 months."

90+ points!- William Cole 2011 "Bill" Chardonnay, "This barrel fermented Chardonnay is dry with tropical fruit on the nose and palate: well balanced and long on the palate. Aged in French oak for 10 months."

91 points!- William Cole 2010 "Bill" Pinot Noir, "Dark red cherry; plum and a savory note in the mouth, lovely velvet smooth feel in the mouth along with good balance and depth... aged 12 months in French oak."

William Cole Albamar 2012 Sauvignon Blanc Casablanca Valley; 88+ points- , "Tropical and herbal notes; on the palate... perfect match to raw oysters, sushi, and other shell fish."

William Cole Albamar 2012 Chardonnay Casablanca Valley; 87 points, "Clean, fresh and easy drinking, this wine shows good balance and excellent freshness. Unwooded and quite straightforward in character."

William Cole Albamar 2011 Pinot Noir Casablanca Valley; 88 points, "Medium-light red in color, showing pure red cherry aromas and flavors... Light and fruit forward, the wine is refreshing, clean and quite pretty ."

William Cole Columbine Reserve 2011 Pinot Noir Casablanca Valley; 88 points, "Richly fragrant of red cherry this wine shows surprising elegance and focus, fruit forward with good intensity and purity of flavor... persistent red-noted finish. Matured 6 months in French oak."

IMPORTED BY GLOBAL VINEYARD IMPORTERS
WWW.GLOBALVINEYARD.COM 510-527-5877