

One of the greatest wines coming out of Chile today!

Year after year, top wine publications rave about Antiyal, an exciting biodynamic and organic wine from the Maipo Valley.

Antiyal's 2007 vintage was awarded 91 points and called "dark and slightly brawny, with nice buried acidity keeping it all together."

The '06 vintage received 90 points and was described as "concentrated ... with some elegance, with a nearly sleek, minerally feel backed by a lingering loamy hint on the finish."

The 2007 Antiyal has "juicy, sharply defined red and dark berry flavors complemented by cracked pepper, cinnamon and a kiss of candied flowers. Seductive, open-knit and delicious."

92+ points.

Report # 21: The Chilean Wine Revolution

"This is an attractive blend combining the red fruit and spice of Carmenere with earthy garrique, cedar and black currant fruit of Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah. The wine is velvety smooth and moderately intense on the palate with fine grained tannins and a long finish." 90 points.

"One of the 50 most influential winemakers in the world.... Alvaro Espinoza is the reference point for Chilean wine."
