

CHILE RETURNS TO ITS ROOTS

With successful vintages in 2005 and 2006, solid values lead the way
 BY JAMES MOLESWORTH

92 points

Leading consultant Alvaro Espinoza, a proponent of biodynamics, has established his own Antiyal label as one of Chile's top producers.

TOP WINES
WINE	SCORE	PRICE
ANTIYAL Maipo Valley 2005 This delivers blackberry, bramble, grilled meat and lilac, with plenty of guts and ample structure. Carmenère blend.	92	$55 my has soared, shrug off their wines and move with a global re-liver good value wine drinkers.

Chilean winemakers have succeeded in producing excellent value wines along with world-class bottlings, such as these top offerings from Viñedos Emiliana, Viña Montes and Antiyal.