Report # 21: The Chilean Wine Revolution

The International Wine Review team tasted more than 400 wines for this report. IWR reports are produced in collaboration with an expert Tasting Panel and Editorial Team consisting of the most knowledgeable, experienced wine professionals in the industry.

Antiyal 2006

90 points

“This is an attractive blend combining the red fruit and spice of Carmenere with earthy garrique, cedar and black currant fruit of Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah. The wine is velvety smooth and moderately intense on the palate with fine grained tannins and a long finish.”

Kuyen 2006

90 points

“Dark and ruby-colored, it has an enticing perfume of pain grille, spice box, vanilla, blueberry, and black currant. On the palate, it is smooth-textured, elegant, and easy-going. Nicely balanced.”

Maquis Lien 2006

90 points

“The nose reveals aromas of ripe black fruit and cassis that are mirrored on the palate with violet notes and black pepper. The wine shows good body, round tannins and a long and persistent finish.”

Calcu 2007

87 points

“Medium ruby robe and a nose of red fruit with hints of roasted meat and leather. It is soft on the attack, with rustic flavors on the palate.”

Apaltagua Carmenere Grial 2007

90 points

“A complex and savory wine with rich plum and heavily toasted oak aromas followed by velvety plum fruit flavors, lots of spice, and notes of smoke, tobacco and chocolate. The tannins are soft and round and the finish is long lasting.”

Apaltagua Carmenere Envero 2007

88 points

“This flavorful Carmenere is sourced from 60 year old vines and offers a dark ruby color and a nose of red and black plums and rose petals with a touch of smoke. It has a soft lush attack of tangy dark plum fruit and a distinct bright red fruit note on the finish.”

Apaltagua Reserva Chardonnay 2009

88 points

“The pale straw Apaltagua Chardonnay offers a lot for the price. It has a leesy nose of white flowers and pear and a soft attack of sweet ripe pear with a touch of rose petal.”

Penalolen Cabernet Sauvignon 2007

89 points

“Lush attack and ripe flavors of black currant fruit, espresso, green olives and minerals. The tannins are well managed and it finishes long.”
