

Gillmore

Del Maule

Del Maule is a line of Italian varietals with an appealing Chilean twist, reflective of their soil and climate. Born from centuries-old vines imported from Italy, the vineyards are now flourishing in their new home in the Maule Valley.

Located in Chile's Maule Valley, Gillmore is a family-owned winery founded in 1990, but with vineyards over 60 years old. Daniella Gillmore and her husband Andrés Sanchez produce and bottle estate-grown wines from their own Loncomilla vineyards. The fruit is harvested by hand and the wine is produced using traditional dry farming techniques.

PRESS

“Andrés Sánchez and Daniella Gillmore have made a speciality out of Italian grapes and very successful they are too. Is there a better Aglianico produced outside Italy? I don't think so.”
